

Intellectually Disabled

Human service organizations often work with some of the most fragile and at-risk populations including those people with disabilities.

If your organization is serving these populations, you cannot risk jeopardizing your staff or those who you serve to someone with questionable character. Any incident not only puts those you serve in danger but can also dramatically impact your organization's reputation and mission.

You cannot risk jeopardizing your staff or those who you serve to someone with questionable character.

PROVERIFY™ ID SCREENING

Background checks for organizations that serve individuals with special needs are now an essential part of the hiring process. The ProVerify service offering can fully assist with set-up, coordination, and management of all details for the ProVerify™ ID background screening services.

PROVERIFY™ ID COMPLIANCE MANAGEMENT

ProVerify™ powered by Application Verification has the ability to not only make you compliant, but keep you compliant. It enables you to mentor an individual's on-going screening compliance to ensure your organization is meeting your regulatory requirements.
